

Rivers of Babylon (Psalm 137) by Debbie Dorman

Intro: Bm A G (4x)

Verse Bm A G Bm A G
 By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept - When we remembered Zion
 Bm A G
 Upon the willows here we've hung our harps
 Bm A G Bm A G
 How can we sing the songs of Zion? How can we sing the songs of Zion?

1st CHORUS

D A
 How can we sing the songs of the Lord
 Em D/G A
 In a foreign land how can we sing for joy
 D A
 If I forget you, oh Jerusalem (2nd chorus: Your love and faithfulness)
 Em D/G Asus4 A G
 May my lips forget how to sing, may My hands forget how to play this instrument

Repeat verse

2nd chorus

Vamp: || (G G) Bm Bm || G G Bm Bm || G G G/A G/A

3rd chorus

D A Em D/G A
 I will sing the songs of the Lord. In a foreign land yet I will sing for joy
 D A Em D/G
 I will proclaim your love and faithfulness - for You are good, Your word is true
 Asus4 A D A Em A
 And I will put my hope in You and sing! (the songs of the Lord)

Instrumental D A Em (D/G) A
 D A Em (D/G) A
 D A Em (D/G) A

Ending: G G Bm Bm

You are faithful, you are faithful Lord

G G Bm

Your love endures forever, Your love endures forevermore....

